

Dexter & Kim Hardy

Dexter Hardy is the lead pastor of LifePoint Church based in Marietta, Georgia. Dexter has been privileged to serve in various ministry leadership roles within the church and other religious organizations. Prior to moving to Marietta, Dexter served on the staff of the Baptist State Convention of Michigan

He holds a master of divinity degree from Dallas Theological Seminary. Dexter is known for his fresh and transparent messages that are relevant to real life. Pastor Dexter and his wife Kim have four young adult children and one grandchild.

LifePoint Church website: www.discoverlifepoint.org

Kim enjoys every opportunity she gets to encourage and challenge her audience, clients, friends and family to live impactful lives. She is privileged to live out her calling as a professional speaker, life and leadership coach, and author. Having written seven books, her latest-- Relaunch: 5 Keys to Getting Past Stuck and Stress at Work and Life was a #1 Amazon best seller. She has been featured in the Wall Street Journal, Woman's Day magazine, Good Morning America, Focus on the Family and a host of syndicated radio shows.

As a renowned speaker, she has been privileged to speak to thousands of attendees at conferences, churches, schools, and businesses. Kim is passionate about teaching truth to her audience that can be fleshed out into every-day life. Whether she is teaching from the Bible or teaching leadership principles-- her deep desire is to see her audience live purposeful and God-honoring lives.

Kim is known for her challenging content, humor, and the inspiration she ignites in her audience. When she is not traveling or working with clients; she loves spending time with her husband, Pastor Dexter Hardy, their four adult children, one grandchild, and volunteering within her community.