Guess Who's Following You?

Psalm 23:6 – "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life..."

My dear saint, from the moment you trusted the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, you've had God's goodness and God's mercy following you every day; every moment of your life.

There are those times in our life when we sense that troubles and problems seem to follow us no matter where we go or what we do. We have to realize and trust what David realized. David realized that the Lord's good and loyal love and God's mercy were his constant companion no matter where he went or what circumstance he found himself in.

Saints, our God's blessings remain with HIS people no matter the circumstance. We have to realize, like David, that for the rest of our lives, we can enjoy full communion with the LORD! OH GLORY HALLELUJAH!

In us is the Lord; with us is the Lord, beside us is the Lord, behind us is the Lord; for us is the Lord. If we will embrace this great truth by faith, worry will be replaced with worship.
