Today's Message You See It, Don't You?
Nehemiah 2:11-20

What led Nehemiah to make this comment and issue this challenge in verse 17?

Let's go back to chapter 1 verse 1

Here in 1:1 we are told that a man named Nehemiah is living in a palace.

A palace with all the creature comforts of a palace.

However, in 1:3 we are told;

- the walls of Jerusalem are broken
- the gates of Jerusalem are burned with fire
- result of those two conditions; the people are in great affliction

So, Nehemiah is saying in 2:17, You See It, Don't You?

I ain't down with this! We can't be down with this.

It's a phrase that describes one's disapproval with something or someone. This right here is unacceptable. Here's what WE are gonna do.

1. Nehemiah Asked Something
2. Nehemiah Heard Something
3. Nehemiah Felt Something
4. Nehemiah Did Something
5. Nehemiah Saw Something

Wisdom Of The Week

Good Morning God!

Psalm 63:1

O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee...

Beginning tomorrow morning and every morning that God wakes us up, we are gonna use these 3 words; Good Morning God!

God, YOU are:

1. My First Thoughts (Psalm 63:1) God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee:

The first thing that comes to our mind when we open our eyes is;

I've gotta get in touch with God

God, YOU are:

2. My First Thirst ...my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land

My soul feels like being in a dry and parched desert.

Remember what our Lord said in Matthew 5:6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

God, YOU are:

3. My First Task Psalm 59:16-17 - But I will sing of thy power; yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning: for thou hast been my defense and refuge in the day of my trouble. Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for God is my defense, and the God of my mercy.

As I rise from sleep, "I thank you Lord

I will sing of your strength; I will sing aloud of your steadfast love in the morning. For you have been to me a fortress and a refuge in the day of my distress."

Saints, every morning is GOOD MORNING, with GOOD MERCIES from a GOOD GOD
