Wisdom Of The Week Let's Comfort God's People!

Isaiah 40:1

Comfort ye, comfort ye MY people, saith your God.

Our God never gives HIS children a command to do something without giving them the means to do it.

God is saying to HIS people, through the prophet Isaiah, that their time of trial is almost over. The repetition of the word "comfort" in this chapter is for emphasis.

Saints, just like Isaiah, we can whisper in the ear of the troubled, the grieving saint, all the comforting words found throughout the Scriptures.

We can whisper into the ear of the saint who is going through various trials, the words that our Lord spoke to HIS troubled-disciples in John 14:16-18.

We can tell our fellow brothers & sisters that our God gives new mercies for every new day. We can tell our fellow brothers & sisters that they are accepted in the Beloved. We can tell our fellow brothers & sisters that Jesus is above, pleading their cause. We can tell our fellow brothers & sisters that, though at times our life is like the raging sea, we are safe in the arms of Jesus. We can tell our fellow brothers & sisters that nothing can separate them from the love of God. We can tell our fellow brothers & sisters of their glorious future in heaven with their Lord forever and ever. Saints, let's comfort one another with the "words of comfort"; THE WORD OF GOD!
