Wisdom Of The Week Are You Feasting At The Banquet Table?

Psalms 23:5

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemy.

Here in Psalms 23 the Psalmist David, using the imagery of a shepherd, recalls the blessings he enjoyed from the LORD.

When we come to verse 5 David present this picture of a banquet hall where the gracious host, the Lord, provides lavish hospitality.

Are we like David? Are we rejoicing in the Lord's provisions.?

What's even more comforting to David was that these provisions were provided even in the presence of his enemies.

So, even in the midst of danger, David had the Shepherd who protects and provide.

Saints, David's Shepherd is our Shepherd. The prophet Jeremiah reminds us that HE provides to every saint, new mercies for every new day.

What an awesome reality! To know that our God, our Shepherd, spreads before us each day a banquet table of blessings. I read a quote that said; "The Lord prepares a table for HIS children, but too many of them are on a diet." May we not be one of them!

Today, each day, let's you and I sit at the LORD's banquet table and feast on HIS provisions, HIS promises in HIS WORD.
