How to Miss a Blessing!

Matthew 4:20 And they straightway (immediately) left their nets, and followed HIM.

When Jesus was calling HIS disciples, the original twelve left "immediately" to follow HIM.

Let's think about this. What if they had decided to wait till later and follow HIM? How many blessings; experiences would they have missed out on if their decision was to wait to later to follow the Lord Jesus. Yes, the Lord fed the 5,000, but the disciples were fed also.

Procrastinating about service to others is like a double-edged sword; not only do we fall to extend a blessing to someone, but we miss the blessing that comes with being a blessing.

So, instead of a double blessing, procrastination results in no blessings at all.

If God has put an opportunity for service in front of you, don't fail to take it – to bless and be blessed at the same time.

Remember: today is the day you thought about yesterday when you said, "I can do that tomorrow."
