Wisdom Of the Week Enjoying The Trip Psalms 16:11

Listen to words of the Psalmist in Psalm 16:11; "Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fullness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures evermore".

The Christian life is a journey, a trip. For many of us it will be a long trip. Just think for a moment about having to go on a long trip. What would be more enjoyable? Traveling by yourself, alone, no one to talk too, or with a friend; a loved one? The answer is obvious.

So, begin today; continue each day in the presence of your Lord. We come into His presence through His Word and through prayer. Dare not begin any day without coming to His Word and, sense His presence, His power. Take a moment during each day and thank Him for living in you. Celebrate the fact that today the King of Glory is actually traveling with you. Not only is HE traveling with you, but HE is also taking care of you. Remind yourself that as I read His Word, as I take His Word with me, I am, "Practicing the Presence of God" ENJOY THE TRIP!
